In 2009, Stella moved from Virginia to Nacogdoches Texas to be close to her brother Jimmy. She found a church home at St Mary of the Epiphany in Timpson and always enjoyed their monthly pot luck dinners.

“ My first job after college graduation was in DC and Aunt Stella graciously put me up while I got the lay of the land and found an apartment. My strongest and earliest memories of her though are of her as a storyteller. She could easily enthrall my younger brother and me with her renditions of classic fairy tales. I will forever hear "Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair" in her voice.
