

Sterling Allen Bustin

June 22, 1973 - January 19, 2020

Sterling Allen Bustin, born in Laurel, MS on June 22, 1973, passed to his heavenly home on January 19, 2020.

He was an avid Atlanta Braves baseball fan, and also an Alabama and Saints football fan. He also loved talking on his CB to friends and went by the name Mudbug. He was a member of Faith Arena church in Laurel and loved to talk about Jesus. He couldn't wait to meet Jesus and looked forward to seeing his grandparents again. He was never able to ride a bike on this earth and was excited to be able to do that.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, G D and Dorothy Busitn and Clinton and Elizabeth Evans.

He is survived by his father, Al Bustin; mother, Ramona Evans; sister, Allison Bustin of Atlanta, GA; a host of aunts; uncles; cousins; and friends, including his CB buddies. He also loved his nurse's aides, including Taya Dean, Daphne Moore, and Brenda Gore.

A celebration of life will be held at Memory Chapel on Friday, January 24, 2020 at 10 a.m. Rev. Richard Phillips will officiate.

“ Sterling was a favorite of my late wife Patricia Powell. She taught him at home and developed a lifelong bond with him and his mother. Working with him and watching him learn and grow was the source of much happiness for her. Sterling and Pat have surely reunited in heaven. God bless him and his family.
