

Steven Wade Robinson

November 17, 1963 - December 22, 2023

Wade Robinson, 60, of Sandersville, MS, died unexpectedly at home on Friday, December 22, 2023. Wade was born on November 17, 1963, in Natchez, MS, to Jim and Lucille Robinson.

Wade was a “salt of the earth” individual known for his calm manner and dry sense of humor. Along with his wife, Tammy, they owned and operated the Let's Make Something fabric and quilt shop in Laurel, MS. Wade was a long-time member of First Baptist Church of Sharon where he sang in the choir. He cherished family time and loved riding their schnoodle in his 2010 Camaro SS with Ralph’s head joyfully poking out the sunroof.

Wade was preceded in death by his brother, Dean Robinson; great niece, Grace Kidd; paternal grandparents, Curtis (CC) and Lucy Mae Robinson and maternal grandparents, Nolan and Lula Mae Windham.

He is survived by his wife Tammy Kidd Robinson, parents Jim and Lucille Robinson, brother Mark Robinson (Kim), sisters-in-law Maranda Kidd Henderson and Rita Crotwell Robinson-Maggiore (Anthony) and brother-in-law Quintin Koger Kidd (Robyn).

Wade was the beloved and cool bear-house-shoe-wearing uncle who would go four-wheeling in the mud, go fishing, stop by PDI for shakes and served as

His family will receive friends at First Baptist Church of Sharon from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 28, 2023, with a service at 11:00 a.m. in the church sanctuary. Interment will follow at Sharon Cemetery. Pastor Matt Olson will officiate.

“ I will always remember Wade as a gentle giant with a voice so rich and deep when he sang. His rendition of Sweet Little Jesus Boy was the best. Now Wade is singing in a Heavenly choir and rejoicing with loved ones. Praying for Tammy and the family. He is loved and missed.
