“ *My heart is broken for Holly because I know how deeply she loves Jeb. I've known and loved them both since we met in 1963. Jeb was one of the best of the best in the Air Force. Intelligent, loyal, highly respected, devoted to duty, dedicated to his country and his Holly.
They were a match made in heaven, where they will reunite someday. Keep your chin up, sweet Holly. I'm praying for you, with love.*

“ We already miss you so much, our sweet Jebber! We miss your sense of humor, that twinkle in those pretty, blue eyes, and that beautiful smile...even though it usually meant you'd just said something sarcastic. We miss hearing you call us your "baby girls". I'm glad that I was here holding your hand as you headed to those pearly gates. There was a look of peace on your face and I have NO doubt that you were ready. You were tired and I know it was time. You were such a beautiful man and I hope you know we're now taking good care of your HollyBelle just like we took care of you. Look down on us often and save a place for us! We love you!
Love, (One of your girls), ANGEL
