“ Dear James and Jamie and Robbie: This getting old and losing your family and friends one by one is a hard thing, and Dick and I are finding that out now. Sue and I shared some good times at various activities over the years and we held the same life philosophy of making the most of it. Which she did with so much grace. I value her friendship, as so many others do, too. SUCH a special person who, as her lovely and oh-so-true obituary said, will be greatly missed. With affection and sympathy, Your friend, Marda
