Susan was a gentle kind hearted mother and grandmother. She loved making memories with her children and grand babies. Whether it was coloring or watching a Disney movie, she enjoyed it as much as them. She was a big kid at heart. She loved to crochet and make blankets for them also but often didn't finish because another craft caught her attention. She enjoyed crafting and cooking. She could turn trash into treasure and make a delicious meal from a bare pantry. She also loved traveling and met great friends everywhere she went. She appreciated being outside or at the beach and admired the beauty of God's creation. Susan was a faithful Christian and gave God the glory of her existence. Her daily devotions led to journaling and she found comfort in writing beautiful testimonies of her life changes. Her faith and strength helped her through many obstacles in her life.

She was a member of Florence Congregational Methodist Church. She is preceded in death by her mother Betty Holder. She is survived by her father, Brother Jimmy Holder, lifelong friend Terry Burkhart, three daughters, Kerry Burkhart Smith (Chris) of Laurel, Melissa Burkhart Parish (Uriah) of
