“ I worked with Taylor at First National and Deposit Guaranty Bank for 20 years. He could do anything at the bank. He would fix the elevator when it didn't work, climb on top of the building to hoist up the flag, and many other things to keep the bank from spending money when he could fix it. He even untangled my necklace once or twice when I could not do it! lol. He was a friend to all. Most of our bank friends are now gone from us, we were a family back then and loved our customers. You don't see that anymore.

“ During this most difficult time, please know that David and I have you all in our thoughts and prayers.

As a child I remember my daddy, (C.A.) coming home from hunting and sharing tales circulating among the hunters. Perhaps Taylor and daddy will catch up on some of those hunting tales.
