“ Vicky has been such a supportive parent as Thomas completed his 1st year at West Jones Middle. We enjoyed her positive attitude, willingness to help, and her love for her family and others. We will miss her very much and we will take very good care of Thomas as he continues his journey throughout the years at West.

“ Comming back to FBC Sharon a couple of years ago was the best thing that ever happened to me. It has always been my HOME church. It was obvious Vicky was very much loved at church. We smiled at each other & spoke. But I wanted to KNOW her. I told her that she was such an inspiration to me & that I loved her. (I tell everybody I love them). I hugged her, & thanked her, & I'll miss her. Her love for God just shined through. We will all miss you Vicky, but we'll see you again.

“ To the family of one of the most precious saints that ever walked this earth. My prayers will attend you in the painful days ahead. I plan to remember her smile, her deep caring for others and her selflessness, and the smeeet memories of teaching children, with Vicky especially the programs and her love of children's music and books.
