“ Growing up one house away from Kay, as a young child, I watched a love story develop before my eyes . I was too young at that time to understand what an everlasting love relationship could be. I grew to understand what a Godly love they had for each other. I'm sure that your mother's birds are singing tonight. Bless you and your family.

“ I remember meeting Walker at Outlaw Hunting Club back in the 70's. I was just a kid at the time. Walker and his family became a big part of our families' lives for years. We were always getting together from the deer camp, to Eagle Lake, South street and Long Lake. I even got to work on some projects with Walker at ERDC before he retired. I sure missed him when they moved back to Laurel. I'll always remember that big smile and laugh with those big cat eyes. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you Mrs Kay and the rest of the family.
