♥ Remembering You, Granddaddy Wiley Lester Johnson aka “Apaw”

January 10th will always be a special day in my heart because it's your birthday. Even though it's been a few years since you left us, your presence is still felt every single day.

You weren't just a grandfather—you were my greatest teacher, my protector, and my friend. The love and wisdom you poured into our lives shaped who I am today. I think back to the way you always knew how to make me laugh, how you made everything feel safe, and how your stories made the world a little brighter.

If I could send this message to heaven, I'd tell you how much I miss you and how grateful I am for every moment we shared. I hope you're celebrating up there, surrounded by peace, love, and the joy you always gave to us.

Happy Birthday, Apaw. Until we meet again, I'll keep carrying your love in my heart.

*Forever missing you,
Christy and forever your Georgie Boy*
