

William Craig Quin

November 3, 1947 - July 18, 2024

William Craig "Coach" Quin

November 3, 1947 – July 18, 2024

William Craig "Coach" Quin, born on November 3, 1947, in McComb, Mississippi, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2024. Craig was a man of many roles and endless love. He was preceded in death by his wife, Charlotte Quin.

Craig leaves behind his daughter, Amanda Holifield, and her husband, Stephen Holifield; his sister, Susan Spring; his treasured grandchildren, Laurel Ishee, Elizabeth Jones, Savannah Holifield, and Seth Holifield, and their spouses; and a host of nieces and nephews, too numerous to list but no less beloved.

Known to most as a coach, father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend (and to a select few as potentially Batman), Craig's life was a testament to the values of God, friendship, wisdom, encouragement, humor, and dedication. He had a remarkable ability to make everything okay, leaving an indelible mark on everyone who knew him. His absence will be deeply felt, but his legacy will continue to inspire us.

The viewing will be held from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. at Memory Chapel in Laurel, followed by a graveside service at 11:00 a.m. at Memorial Gardens. Donations may be made to The Gideon Society by mail in lieu of flowers.

Pallbearers will be Stephen Holifield, Seth Holifield, Dylan Ishee, Dustin Logan, Ford McCloud, and Tim Nicholas. Honorary pallbearers include Jimmy Chandler, Neil Randal, David Green, and Lonnie Hicks.

We are grateful for your love and support. Let's not mourn his passing but celebrate his life and the impact he had on each of us. Now, "let's play ball."
