“ I offer you my deepest condolences of sympathy in the loss of Mr. Dubbie White. I personally feel that WDAM should have recognized Mr. Dubbie more than they did on WDAM. I'm sure He dedicated his time and life to WDAM and loved what he did. AGain my deepest sympathy to the family.

“ A precious man who loved WDAM and we all loved him. He would check everyone's inspection sticker so they wouldn't get a ticket for expired stickers.
Dubbie was WDAM's historian and saved many items before the next corporate owner came in and trashed everything!!!
He will be missed.
He called me Olivia.
Love you Dubbie!!!

“ I worked with "Dubbie" at WDAM in the 70's, he certainly knew his way around a Videotape Machine! Saved any number of "overtime" Commercials with his fast editing reflexes! A true character! RIP Dubs.
