“ His smile was contagious. He allowed his students to enjoy class. At West Jones, he was my 9th grade Algebra teacher. The next year I attended Heidelberg Academy and thought I would have a different math teacher. With wide eyes, we both were shocked to be in class together again. He said, “I thought I got rid of you.” We all laughed and it took away the dread of math class.

“ Coach Livingston made a huge difference in my life. I didn't really even like math when I showed up in his 9th grade algebra class. I expected to do science or engineering. When I told him that, he said I really needed to know my math and gave me the book to work on over the summer. After that, he worked with me one-on-one for the rest of high school, ordering a new calculus book for me my senior year.

By the time I graduated, I knew math was what I was supposed to do. I'm now a full professor of mathematics at Texas Tech, and it started with Coach Livingston.

“ Thank you Coach for taking extra time to help me when I struggled with algebra. You were always willing to go the extra mile for your students and we appreciated it more than you knew.
