“ He knew that, Isaac Stroud, my son who was 6 at the time, loved Sling shots, so he made one for him and gave it to him on the front pew of Open Door Baptist Church. That meant the world to me that he would take of his time to make something with his hands and was thinking of my son the whole time who was only just a little boy.
It goes to show you that everyone was important in his eyes.

During the time Steve was in the hospital in Mobile for 3 months, Joyce and Jean would come visit us. Every time Joyce would say here is a "bill" Todd wanted me to give to you. I don't have any idea how many "bills" he sent. I shall never forget his kindness expressed to us during one of the most stressful times in my life. He looked and saw someone in the ditch and helped. A Good Samaritan.
